

Preventive measures in Tuberculosis

Newborn BCG vaccination helps prevent severe TB

Early diagnosis and treatment prevent spread of TB

Early contact tracing helps find subjects with active TB disease or latent TB infection

Targeted testing and treatment of latent TB infection help reduce the risk of developing TB disease among high-risk subjects

Sufficient rest

Balanced diet

Moderate exercise

Personal hygiene