

Ruttonjee & Tang Shiu Kin Hospitals Department of Respiratory Medicine

Background

- 1942 - Closure of Royal Naval Hospital after WWII
- 1949 - Renovated as Ruttonjee Sanatorium for caring patients with tuberculosis by J.H. Ruttonjee, HKTBA & government support.
- 1991 - Transformed to General Hospital by building of current main hospital block with Respiratory, Geriatric & then acute medical and surgical services.
- 2002 - Integrated with Accident & Emergency Department of Tang Shiu Kin Hospital as Acute Hospital

Scope of Respiratory Medicine Services

1. Respiratory Care Ward

▲ Ward

▲ Respiratory medical staff (doctors, nurses, allied health professionals)

2. Specialist Outpatient Clinic (Respiratory Medicine)

Opening: Every Tuesday, Wednesday & Friday

3. Sleep Study Centre

▲ Sleep test

▼ Polysomnogram

4. B5 Respiratory Care Ward

Ventilator care & beds

5. Special Purpose Ward

▼ Isolation facilities

▲ Isolation Ward

6. Palliative Care Centre

▼ Volunteer Service

▲ Palliative Care Ward

▲ Multi-disciplinary Meeting

7. Pulmonary Rehabilitation Program

▼ Multi-disciplinary conference

▲ Education health talk

▲ Physiotherapy

▲ Pulmonary rehabilitation day centre

▲ Occupational Therapy

8. 24-hour Accident & Emergency Department

